The screenshot shows the Avast! Internet Security application window. The title bar reads "avast! INTERNET SECURITY". In the top right corner, there are links for "HELP CENTER", "SETTINGS", and a "BUY NOW" button. The main interface is divided into a left sidebar and a main content area. The sidebar contains several menu items: "SCAN COMPUTER", "REAL-TIME SHIELDS", "FIREWALL", "ADDITIONAL PROTECTION", "MAINTENANCE", "Update", "Subscription" (highlighted with a red box), "Virus Chest", and "About avast!". The main content area is titled "YOUR SUBSCRIPTION" and contains the following text: "Please review the information relating to your avast! subscription." Below this, it states "SUBSCRIPTION STATUS: TRIAL PERIOD NOT ACTIVATED" in red. A green button labeled "Activate trial period" is visible. A large message reads: "The trial period could not be activated. In order to start receiving updates, the trial period must be activated." Below this message is a "Subscription information" section with the following details: "Licensed to: -", "Customer number: -", and "Subscription valid till: (not yet activated)". A red circle highlights a green button labeled "Insert license file". At the bottom, there is an "Activation code" section with the text: "Alternatively, you can activate your license by inserting an activation code".
